Developing Community Driven-University Supported Climate Justice Partnerships Year 1 · 2023-2024 · Draft Logic Model

Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Outcomes
Resourcing for Community-Driven Prioritization	Establishing Relationships, Trust Building, Co-learning, Resource Sharing, and Co-governance	Iterative Formulation of the "Philadelphia Climate Justice Collective"	Year 1 2023-2024
 Seed Funding Waverley Street Foundation CBOs Leadership and expertise of Esperanza, Mantua Civic Association, Southeast Asia Mutual Assistance Association Coalition, & Overbrook Environmental Education Center Cost-shared time and effort 	 CBOs Community relation building and CBO led engagement Environmental project or research goals Determining scope of activities based on knowledge of communities 	 CBOs Identification of community priorities Translation of community member input into recommendations Project or research report 	 Enhanced network connections: Value-added collaboration, dense connectivity, increased social capital exchanges, and interactional diversity. Effective CBO-TEC partnership: Trust and respect, equity & power balance, and co-ownership of research. Progress on CBO-identified environmental justice goals Inter-policy recommendations documents Laid the foundation for: Capacity building for sustained action; Implementation to address systemic issues identified in the process; and Learning to move away from cost- share model to sustain/compensate CBOs for work as experts.
	 CBO-University Establishing CBO-Drexel and CBO-CBO collaboration CBO-TEC one-on-one and in-person site meetings Monthly collective meetings TEC engagement events Evaluation activity engagement (focus groups, survey, informal conversations, logic model building) 	 CBO-University PCJC Guiding Principles Data Sovereignty Framework Identification of ongoing capacity needs Input on evaluation Year 1 Logic Model Theory of Change University
 Leadership and expertise of Drexel Director, Project Manager, Interns, Network Evaluators, & Outcome Evaluators 	 building) University Establishing application criteria and processes Acknowledging the historic misuses of university-community partnerships Managing external consultants 	 Strategy Arts needs assessment recommendation report Network evaluation report Outcome evaluation report 	Acknowledgments for contributing to the development of the logic model: Esperanza • Mantua Civic Association • Southeast Asia Mutual Assistance Association Coalition • Overbrook Environmental Education Center • The Environmental Collaboratory • The Methods Lab • SoDI LAB